What Happened This Week

What a Night!

Song, dance & comedy; it had it all.

As concerts go it was fabulous; the costumes, props everything just worked on the night.

Great nights like this don't just happen. Many hours of hard work and endless hours of rehearsal and backstage management needed to happen for a show like ours to be as successful as it was on Wednesday night.

There are many thank-you's and acknowledgements that must be said. Firstly the night would not have been so succesful if weren't for Mulynda and Graeme's belief in our small school.....how right they were!

To the team; teachers, parents and especially Vanessa, whose input with stage managing the whole concert was fabulous.

To those who haven't ordered a DVD of the night make sure you do before Wednesday 30th November.

Parents and Friends Afternoon Tea

The PFA has been instrumental in raising funds for our school this year and has been involved in a number of amazing school activities. This has all been due to the work and time parents have put in.

Newlands PS and PFA appreciate all the contributions which have been made and want to say a big thank you!

So if you've flipped a sausage, baked a cake, sat in a meeting, or helped out in a classroom, (or anything you can think of!)

We invite you to our:
PFA Afternoon Tea
Monday 12th December at 2pm
In Multi-purpose room

Young siblings and children welcome!

We also want to welcome new and existing parents in our community to come and say hello!
